* Pick of the week

Barthes/Burgin John Hansard Gallery, Southampton The revelatory drawings of the pre-eminent theorist are paired with British conceptualist Victor Burgin.

Underground Ditchling Museum Marking one hundred years since Edward Johnston and Eric Gill developed a universal visual identity for London Underground, this show considers the pair's familiar typeface.

Notes From China The Minorities, Colchester Drawing has a long history in China, yet this group show casts a light on the contemporary artists using the medium.

Permindar Kaur University Of Hertfordshire, Hatfield The security - and the illusion of security - of the domestic environment is the charged subject of the artist in this site-specific installation.
